Woe to Suspicious Characters.

Detective McMahon is waging an active war against suspicious characters in the city. Two negroes were arrested last night, and the charge "suspicious character" registered against their names. This may mean that they are bank robbers or petty thieves. The slush does not tell about the cases until after they are given a hearing in the Police Court. Henry Johnson and John Pannel are the two negroes who will appear to-day and give an account of themselves.

Seven Boys Arrested.

Seven young white boys will appear before Judge McMahon this morning on charges of throwing rocks on the street. There was a real live rock battle in progress on "Shoemaker's" street when the officers here in light and nabbed seven of the young Americans.

NEGRO CONFERENCE.

School Question and Tuberculosis Discussed.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
HAMPTON, VA., July 13.—The ninth annual session of the Hampton Negro Conference began here to-day with a large attendance of colored men from all parts of the country, the bulk of the representation, however, being from the Southern States.
The subject of city schools for colored children was discussed by W. T. B. Williams, of Hampton, the school visitor for the Hampton Normal Board. He mentioned a number of places, which, he said, were delinquent in the matter of adequate school room accommodations for the colored people. Nevertheless, he added, neither poverty nor the indifference of school officials is altogether the cause in every instance of poor school facilities. The colored people themselves are sometimes at fault.
Other topics discussed were the public and private support of negro schools, and problems and tuberculosis.

Great Barbecue at Chatham Will Open the Coming Week's Programme.

ALL ARE GOING TO AMELIA

Governor to Make Monument Address There—Plans of Other Candidates.

Elaborate preparations are being made by Pittsylvania Democrats for a great barbecue at Chatham next Monday, on the occasion of the first appearance in that county of Senator Martin in his campaign. The barbecue and speaking will be had in the grove around the Chatham graded school, and everything will be provided for the comfort of the thousands who are expected to attend. Reports from there are that 1,800 pounds of beef and bread in proportion will be provided to feed the throng, and barrels of ice water and lemonade will be served free to those in attendance. A large crowd from Danville is expected to attend.

Senator Martin returned to the city yesterday from Surry county and was joined here by Mr. Martin. Both were at the Jefferson yesterday evening. The senator will go to Amelia to-morrow, as will the Governor and almost all the candidates for State elective offices, the attraction being the large crowd from the surrounding counties who will attend the ceremonies incident to unveiling a Confederate monument there.

Frank Amelia Senator Martin expects to go to Farmville, and will in all probability speak there in the evening. He will go to Pittsylvania Monday and speak in Danville that evening.

Governor Montague will go to Amelia to-morrow, and will make the principal address at the monument unveiling there that day. He will have a chance to meet several thousand people. He must hurry back from Amelia to make an address in Manchester that evening, and altogether has a very trying day's work mapped out for him.

Political talk around the hotels has been very quiet for the past few days, owing possibly to the absence of the candidates. The public tax payments, and speculation as to the result in this city on the senatorial fight, were the chief topics.

An excursion from Emporia brought up a Greensville crowd, and many of those called at the headquarters of the various candidates and gave them their views as to the Greensville situation.

The Martin forces are quietly and slowly getting to work on their organization in this city, but are keeping their plans to themselves. It is understood that both are getting down to work along this line. The correspondence bureau of the various headquarters are peering away, but generally with reduced force. The whole State has now been pretty well peppered with letters, and the preliminary organization is complete.

There is a feeling in this city on the result. Even money is offered as to the result in Richmond city, but Martin supporters are offering odds as to the result in the State. There is little betting being done yet, however, and that is quiet. Some small bets have been placed at even money, however, and the need for the governorship, according to the talk of many who will not vote for him, the candidacy of Judge William H. Mann is looming up as a serious factor in the contest. As a general thing, however, the gubernatorial fight is overshadowed by the senatorial contest.

FLOOD AT ROANOKE.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

The water was head of stuck, and Jones and his wife and nine children made their way to the hills in nearly two feet of water. Fortunately not even a dog was lost.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
